

This band really are exceptionally good. They played at our wedding in April this year and their set was complete class. Our guests kept coming up to us and telling us how good the band were and asking where we'd found them. Eric's powerful vocals mixed with the rest of the bands musical ability will get everyone up and dancing. Also, despite their obvious talent, all of them are still very down to earth and can give some really useful input into making any aspect of a musical event work. We cannot recommend them highly enough.

Hi Jack & the rest of you amazing Soul Strutters,

Please accept my apologies for the delay in thanking you guys for putting on a top notch set at our festival-themed wedding on Saturday 3rd May!

Having witnessed your awesomeness live in Plantation at a friend's hen do several months before, I knew that you guys would be perfect for getting everyone up and dancing; and you really delivered! In fact, we had to cancel our other band in your place (we were that convinced) and we don't regret it!

Well, we danced and sang our hearts out from start to finish, and I'm still receiving comments about the singer's amazing vocals six weeks on. I've attached some photos of the happiness you brought to WedFest (must have been a bit of a slow jam as there's a lot of love in those snaps, possibly "Let's Get it On"!). We really enjoyed your performance, so thank you for coming all the way down to South Devon.

We will definitely catch you guys playing again some time soon around Bristol, and would recommend you to anyone looking for a professional and brilliant funk and soul band.

All the Best,

Jess & Jon Brookes

When the Soul Strutters first played here at Café Rene they blew us away! From the first song to the last the whole pub was dancing, singing and begging for more! They play their songs with so much passion and energy that it resonates through the whole crowd, and it's why we have booked them more than once. True crowd pleasers with a performance that will bring people together and transform any venues atmosphere into one BIG party!

Booked these lads for our wedding after seeing them in town. I knew we wouldn't be disappointed, as they know how to bring the funk to the table and then beat the hell out of it! We could have gone for the usual wedding band that takes a chart classic and sings it back as you've heard it 257 times before! NOT AT MY WEDDING! Kicking it off with our first dance of Jackie Wilson - Higher and Higher, it was clear it was going to be a good night, as a load of the guests joined us on the dance floor. Eric's voice is immense and a few women said some unrepeatable things to me about their appreciation of his presence! Jack tore up the keyboard and battered it into submission with his insane ad libs. The other guys were as tight as you can get too! The volume was just right. People weren't blasted out of their seats, but the bass was there. AND I have to say the mash ups they performed were awesome!

All we've had since the wedding is positive comments about the Soul Strutters. If you want a wishy washy band with no individuality don't come here. If you want soul, blues and funk performed with feeling by a band who want to make tracks their own, book now before you can't afford them!

Thanks guys. You were a big part of an amazing day.

The Soul Strutter's absolutely rocked our wedding. Literally everybody danced. And for hours! I can't imagine a better band to blow the top off a marquee.

Thanks very much to the Soul Strutters for headlining at YeastFest 2014. Our international crowd of guests and employees were blown away by their soulful awesomness. They are a very professional band to work with, have a great repertoire, and we'd definitely hire them again. Highly recommended.

The first time The Soul Strutters played at ours, they blew everyone away with such a high-octane night of some of THE best soul and funk we've ever seen or heard. Everyone had such a fantastic night and since then The Soul Strutters have become a firm favourite at The Blue Lagoon Cafe Bar. You must check these guys out - the talent between them all is too amazing for words! Individually they are some of THE most talented in town, but together? Man they ignite!!!

Blue Lagoon

We booked The Soul Strutters for our wedding this year and were completely blown away by them! Great professionals from start to finish, Jack and James even provided the music for our wedding ceremony and drinks reception. They have an amazing back catalogue of songs and offer creative interpretations of classic songs in their own unique style. The dance floor was packed all night long, you guys absolutely smashed it!!

The Soul Strutters played at my daughters wedding at the Masonic Hall, Newport on September 12th, 2014. What a great set they played. I recommend them to anybody who wants a great night out! It's a shame they are based in Bristol. Thanks very much for making the night special. Hope you play in Newport again soon and hope to be able to come and see you. Everyone at the wedding through you were brill and made the night. Thanks again!

After having seen The Soul Strutters on the bristol pub circuit regularly entertaining large numbers, we were keen for them to play at our wedding! Having met James and the rest of the band we found them to be positive and happy to please, as a result we booked them for our wedding. They did not disappoint, they had so much energy and obviously were very passionate about what they did - they adapted to all audiences and made our wedding reception one to remember! Thank you so much you Soul Strutters! :)
